Attention: Guy Cottrell
Chief Postal Inspector, U.S. Postal Inspection Service

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the U.S. Postal Inspection Service is to support and protect the U.S. Postal Service and its employees, infrastructure, and customers; enforce the laws that defend the nation's mail system from illegal or dangerous use; and ensure public trust in the mail.
As per the above I am simply asking your organization to do the job for which the organization is paid!

I filed a complaint regarding what I believe to be mail fraud (C#1820637). This complaint involves the fraudulent use of the USPS by a suspected fraudulent agency posing as a department of the legitimate government of the American people. The suspected perpetrators use the names, "IRS," "Internal revenue service," and "the department of the treasury."

Just so we are clear...I expect answers. And I expect them promptly.

I expect the truth. And I expect all of those engaged in providing these investigative services to honor their oath of office...an employment contract to faithfully perform their duties. Anything less is a breach of contract and of fiduciary responsibilities.

It has been over thirty days and I have heard nothing. This is unacceptable.

I look forward to your full report by return email no later than Monday, March 20, 2017.

If anything in this message is unclear please contact me immediately for clarification.

Thank you...

arnie, just one of the people.
