In your own words, everything was created in fraud. That would include the Constitution.

Your deliberate attempt to convince people that it is the Constitution by which they are empowered is a lie! We both know that just being alive is the authority.

The Constitution or any document is nothing more than words inscribed on a piece of paper.

Without honor, those who would profess to be honorable and honest are nothing more than a blank piece of paper. No manner of words regardless of how well written would make any difference.

It is the long-term reputation of honorable intentions and the ensuing honorable deeds of those who keep their word to agreements that are the only things that matter.

Among honorable people, written agreements are not required.

Go read the Constitution. It says what it says in black and white. And if you don't have a copy, so that you claim the "specifics can't be verified"????---- it's your own damned fault.

Nine-tenths of all the problems we face are due to willful IGNORANCE. Yours included.

And if the vaunted "people" are too lazy and too stupid to read and understand their own Constitution, then who is to be blamed for their misery and demise?

Well Dear Judge Anna...

Thank you for commenting. Obviously you offer no corrections just a response where specifics can not be verified.

Regrettably...It Looks as though you choose to disregard the intentions of the Creator when granting us free will.

Perhaps this following post will enlighten you to understand the how, (thanks to your input), I have come to understand the legitimacy, the unlimited and ultimate authority of the American people, when acting in the capacity of we the people..

– America – A wholly owned public entity – Owned, lock, stock and barrel— by the American people!

As usual, Arnie, you only read the parts that you want to contest with and only from your own stale, bitter, and yes, unlawful point of view in sympathy with what was done in Colorado against the actual Public Law.  I guess you missed this point, huh?

"The Admiralty and Administrative Courts and the Territorial and Municipal United States were in fact approved under the same Constitution that these men claim to hold so dear ---but if they had studied and thought about The Constitution deeply enough they would have known this, with or without me telling them."

Obviously, you are in the same boat as the Colorado Grand Jury Members and are making the same mistakes and apparently for the same reasons.  You either can't read The Constitution or you refuse to do so.
