Hello Kathleen,

Thank you for your response. This information was related in some conversations with some individuals also concerned over this matter. I considered it as hearsay and hence my request for confirmation.

If it would be convenient for your schedule I will make every effort to be available on the 25th of January, 2010. Please advise of the particulars.

I appreciate your assistance on this matter.

Arnie

Subject: Unreasonably Reasonable?

Hello Kathleen,

Since I have not been able to get in to see the congressman on this issue perhaps we can save time by confirming the following article. Due to mounting pressure on what many see as the demise of our American way of life, under the hand of Obama, there is great pressure being exerted at all levels as to the credibility of his eligibility.

I think you will find more information regarding this issue in the following information. Before releasing this for publication, it would be helpful to verify the accuracy of the reference to the Congressman.

Thank you,

Arnie Rosner

According to congressman, Dana Rohrabacher (R) 46th District, the members of congress were provided with information which addressed the eligibility issue and put it to rest. This was offered as the reason no one in congress has pursued this matter further.

Of course since our congressional leaders are sworn to protect the constitution and in their judgement, they are satisfied that the issue is closed then of course we should all be satisfied that this is a closed issue. right?

For clarification here is the oath of office for Congress.
