Dear Congressman Rohrabacher,

This particular bank has been featured in many previous exposés.

1. Statement of problem:
   Federal regulators Friday shut down the bank owned by the family of Illinois Democratic Senate candidate Alexi Giannoulias. The FDIC estimates the cost to the Deposit Insurance Fund will be $394.3 million.

2. Stated background to Question:
   We recognize the inability of the SEC to properly regulate the financial industry. Seems some of the $200,000 a year attorneys at the SEC are too busy watching pornography on the taxpayer's dime to be effective.

3. Here comes the question:
   Why does it take Congress so long to recognize and deal with these matters of known corruption?

4. Your Response:
