

Sorry I don't get it...On one hand you stated,

1. "They have created "persons,"—corporate franchises...
2. please identify to whom you refer as the, "they?"
And to continue,
3. by what lawful authority might the "they," create this corporate franchise? And
4. without the full disclosure of their actions as the "they," and
5. without the consent of the American Principal..., the apparent deliberate and premeditated victim...
6. How can the "they," do anything considered lawful by any other "theys?"
7. So any other "theys" operating in this scenario, must recognize the conspiratorial nature of this operation and now all of the "theys" involved are complicit in the conspiracy to commit fraud.
8. Which would completely make anything related null and void by reason that
9. Fraud Vitiates all...

Isn't this the same as when the impostors in Congress (assuming them to be the "theys"):

1. unlawfully-mischaracterize the victim of each act of personage and

2. hypothecate the fictitious corporate assets to the respective criminal impersonators acting as legitimate members of the legitimate banking industry, as banks like Goldman Sachs,
3. which know the process involved is fraudulent to begin with, but
4. collude with the criminal impersonators pretending to be legitimate government agents of legitimate government agencies - An Open Letter to Secretary of the Treasury Lew
5. all acting in fraud and the conspiracy to commit fraud?
6. And they do it all with premeditation and full knowledge of their criminal actions.

So to make sure I am clear on these matters, am I to understand that somehow all of these actions are not lawfully null and void because fraud vitiates all?

We are not being tried in their courts. That's the "personage" that is ongoing. They have created "persons"----- federal corporation franchises--- and operated them under our NAMES. Those are the entities being summoned to these courts, but because most Americans have no idea that they have been "impersonated" they have no ability to respond appropriately and object. So they get railroaded.

The two different groups left on American soil after the Revolution are clearly stated in The Definitive Treaty of Peace 1783 --- the "free, sovereign and independent people of the United States" and British "inhabitants" left here to provide "essential government services". This language is then later reflected in Article IV of the Constitution. It's a result of King George retaining control of nineteen enumerated "powers" in international jurisdiction and the duties that go along with exercising those powers. Remember the "deal" the Founders cut----- King Geo agreed to act as our Trustee on the "High Seas and Navigable Inland Waterways"---that is, to provide us services. They did this by forming a base of operations -- the District of Columbia and populating it with "inhabitants" --- British Subjects and British indentured servants. All the inhabitants were also citizens of the federal enclave(s)---- either Territorial or Municipal or both.

Dear Judge,

Thank you for your reply.

It is my understanding the Northwest Ordinance, has some verbiage that included British subjects being accommodated in America to help fulfill the service obligations established by the enumerated powers. I am not sure I fully understand that relationship at this point, for just like you, I have not had an opportunity to review the details for myself. But many of the readers of the scannedretina continue to express their puzzlement over what has been stated in your recent letter: My Twentieth Anniversary.

If these operators of these corporate courts know they are not our lawful public institutions designated as courts...how can Americans, ignorant to the status of this misrepresented facility, find themselves being compelled to defend themselves against these misrepresentations of legitimacy?

- Anna von Reitz – Alaskan Superior Court Judge of the land jurisdiction: These private corporate tribunals are only “giving an appearance of justice”
- SUPREME COURT RULING – NO CORPORATE JURISDICTION OVER THE NATURAL MAN
- Would you buy a used car from the IRS?

If these British corporate courts only exist for the purposes of addressing the issues of the British subjects who reside in the US...for what possible purpose, would these pirates attack Americans over which they have no legitimate jurisdiction? Other than to commit deliberate fraud?

Are not these excursions outside of their own jurisdiction of the sea, considered as inland piracy? Piracy which carries a death penalty?

And to further demonstrate how deep the deception goes and the extremes to which the distortion of the truth has been unlawfully extended...

Following is a document which have recently reemerged and been updated by the author...rb, and while it may not be directly related to this topic, reveals more of what is believed to be involved.

The Obama Package, a.d.

2017.15.8. now for then

And one more which displays the details of an incredible piece of research and goes beyond...(my opinion) what any typical American could even imagine..

Letter to Betty...

And since the disclosure of these details and the myriad of rabbit wholes many continue to explore, may fascinate and enthrall many Americans searching for the key...the magic bullet to liberty...isn't the one overriding fact so basic and so simple few, except the most clear-minded thinkers realize...

- 1 Fraud vitiates all!
- 2 Judge Anna: "This and every other nation you can think of is founded on lies and false claims."
- 3 Inescapable conclusion- mine...The legitimacy of the government of the American people simply does not lawfully exist.

And Judge Anna...it would appear you too agree...

Fraud is Fraud! There is no legitimate government of the legitimate American people.

And in final conclusion, I can confidently leave the final outcome of what must be decided for all Americans...as a peaceful, lawful, respectful and a just society...to make the lasting determination as to in what kind of a society we shall live.

And anyway, it is the same all over this country. I get hundreds if not thousands of complaints and similar informations against the courts every month.

And it is all the same. We can't get justice in these courts. And then I tell people why. And nobody gets it.

Why do you ask? Aren't you getting it yet, either?
