Congressman,

Not intending to be disrespectful but you have left me no choice.

Just to set your morale compass properly I suggest you read the following. Obviously it is something you seemed to have forgotten a long time ago!

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness."

How you have managed to stay in office for 21 years is indeed an amazing feat! Perhaps the lack of your understanding of the seriousness of this situation will end that.

I take exception to this ridiculous and insensitive attitude reflected in your response below.

Are you so totally insulated from the day to day experience you can ignore the stream of active abuses heaped on us as American citizens by the actions of the 111th Congress? Are you so isolated from reality that you are not aware of the dangers to our collective liberties? Are you unaware of the very actions enabled by your office, that threatens to destroy our republic the name of the public good?

You will forgive me Congressman Rohrabacher, at what point did you take leave of your senses? At what point did you join in to this conspiracy and sell out the American republic? Just to whom are your loyalties?

Since you appreciate things that are simple...I wrote you of my concerns to be raised with the Congress! Not to be brought up when it might be convenient. I raised my concerns for you as my representative to make my concerns and the concerns of millions of Americans to be the focus for action by Congress; not as a minor inconvenience, mind you, but as the main point. We are speaking of Constitutional crisis here; not a pay increase for Congress. We are speaking of the destruction of the American way of life! How could you be so incredibly dense as to not understand this? I expect my previous seven page letter just simply went over your head; based on this response I am not surprised.

For many years I had held you in high regard as a leader in Congress; a representative of the people of the 46th District. Age and complacency must have diminished your verve and your fire. This is grossly disappointing. I suspect your time has come and gone; like a paralyzed useless appendage that hangs on simply because no one is kind enough to cut it off.

It appears some members of Congress are beginning to get the message. They are beginning to read the tea leaves; Something you have obviously missed. History will remember where you were on the side of this battle. Remember you did have an opportunity (http://www.thepostemail.com/2010/04/10/the-u-s-congresss-assault-on-citizens/) to act but chose to play it politically safe.

Now...on the right side of history!

U.S. Rep. Steve King, R-Iowa, appears to have suggested he's not entirely satisfied that all the questions about President Obama's eligibility have been answered fully. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mV9-bgSrV_s&feature=player_embedded

The issue came up as he talked about the national debt in a recent address in Congress, televised by C-SPAN and posted on YouTube:

The congressman referred to the estimated $44,000 that each child born in the United States owes at the moment of birth as his or her part of the federal debt. "We worry about them carrying a student loan debt ... maybe $40,000 in student loans," he said. "We'll, I'd be happy to take that $40,000 loan and a guarantee of a college degree and think that child could pay that off."

But for the $44,000 in federal debt obligations, all the individual gets is access to citizenship in the United States of America, he said. "Little baby with ink on their foot, stamped right there on the birth certificate - there's one in this country we haven't seen," he said. "But the footprints on those we have seen. Those little babies owe Uncle Sam $44,000."

NO CONFIDENCE! We Demand Resignation Petition Letter For High Crimes and Misdemeanors

Oath of Office for the President of the United States of America:

US Constitution, Article II, Section 1

"Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:"

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Be it known to all:

- On January 20, 2009, Barack H. Obama, willingly, and without reservation swore the oath of office, not once, but twice, to clarify the first oath which was possibly not administered correctly;
- Since taking the Oath of Office, numerous and frequent transgressions to this oath have been committed by the oath taker in his capacity as President of the United States of America;
- These transgressions, both in volume and severity, constitute High Crimes and Misdemeanors committed by the oath taker;
- Therefore, the American Citizens undersigned, demand the immediate resignation of the oath taker, and his appointees;
- Absent proper and immediate resignations, the undersigned demand that the United States House of Representatives begin immediate and expedited procedures to strike Articles of Impeachment upon the oath taker for high crimes and misdemeanors.
- Definition of High Crimes and Misdemeanors:"High" in the legal parlance of the 18th century means "against the State". A high crime is one which seeks the overthrow of the country, which gives aid or comfort to its enemies, or which injures the country to the profit of an individual or group. In democracies and similar societies it also includes crimes which attempt to alter the outcome of elections.(Wikipedia 6-20-10)

NO CONFIDENCE – I DEMAND RESIGNATION

We the undersigned, without malice, and with full understanding and clear volition, have no confidence in and do demand the resignation of U.S. President Barack H. Obama, his appointees, and his administration forthwith. Should he not resign his office forthwith, we the undersigned demand that the House and Senate Judiciary Committees begin immediate investigation of Mr. Obama including all actions and activities constituting High Crimes and Misdemeanors. A listing of these offenses are resourced at www.patriotsheart.us for presentation at the Congressional Hearings. In addition, we do demand that the U. S. House of Representatives strike Articles of Impeachment against Mr. Obama on or before September 1, 2010.
