Reducing all arguments to a simple fact,
Do we even care what is stated on the Internet?
Expressing an opinion…mine!

What really matters if we are to live in a just society, is the understanding and respect for the following:

As human souls, we are the Earthly sovereigns created in the image of the universal sovereign, the Creator. On Earth, we as sovereigns, are the ultimate authority. It is we who define all terms, laws, monetary considerations and concepts within our own respective domains.

The concept expressed below is in elegant terms far more impressive than any I could ever possibly express...

"and to assume, among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s GOD entitle them—"

"We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their CREATOR, with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness."

"Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed"

And may I respectfully inquire as to what part of the following statement of, for and by the people is unclear?

"whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it"

The Unanimous Declaration

And the reason you hesitate to meet your obligations as an American?

Could it be you are part of the problem?

Who Me? Support the criminal impersonators?
